1:30 p.m. - 3:00 p.m. - Concurrent Sessions

HOTMA

Tushar Gurjal, NAHRO and Eric Oberdorfer, NAHRO

On July 29, 2016 President Obama signed the Housing Opportunity Through Modernization Act of 2016 (HOTMA) into law with unanimous, bipartisan support from Congress. As HUD begins the process of implementing the provisions in HOTMA, many PHAs might be wondering how they will be impacted. Join National NAHRO staff as they discuss provisions included in HOTMA, HUD's implementation progress and timeline, and what NAHRO is doing to help HUD move forward.

Succession Planning, Budgeting and Internal Controls

Jim Inglis, Executive Director, Livonia Housing Commission

Barring unforeseen circumstances, most agencies can make a pretty safe bet when they'll need to replace the Executive Director. However many policy boards are faced with the question "Your Executive Director Just Left, Now What?" As a Commissioner have you adopted a succession plan and process that is communicated with community, staff and people you serve? This session will also focus on the importance of establishing internal controls to protect agency assets and your responsibility to be engaged in the budget process and financial monitoring.

Tax Credit 101 - part 1

Tom Caldwell, Cinnaire and Tom Edmiston, Cinnaire

Attendees will learn how to calculate a first mortgage, learn how to obtain tax credits, and learn how to determine how much credit a development can obtain. Bring a calculator and your questions. Participants will learn how to calculate a first mortgage amount; what kinds of developments tax credits can finance, the legislative background of the program, and general information on how to calculate eligible basis.

Moving to Work Expansion

Chris Lamberty, Assistant Director, Lincoln Housing Authority

Moving To Work (MTW) is a demonstration program originally passed by Congress in 1996 around the same time they passed “welfare reform”. MTW allows selected PHAs to waive many regulations tied to the 1937 Housing Act that governs Public Housing and Section 8 Voucher programs. It also allows PHAs to combine Public Housing and Section 8 funding into a “block grant” and use the funding outside of the particular program box. The stated goal of MTW is to increase opportunities for work and/or self sufficiency; to increase housing choice; and to reduce administrative burden. There are currently 39 MTW agencies across the country. In the 2016 Appropriations Act, Congress directed HUD to expand MTW by another 100 agencies over seven years; establish a specific policy requirement for each cohort of agencies admitted; and rigorously evaluate the cohort requirement. It also required that HUD establish an advisory committee to advise HUD on the policy proposals and methods of research and evaluation that should be required for the 100 new agencies. This session will provide a brief overview of MTW and an update on the expansion process.

Nuts & Bolts of Accounting, Budgeting & Finance - A Casterline Training Additional $ Cost $

Jason Casterline, CPA, Casterline & Associates

This course is intended for those who are new to the Housing Authority’s Finance Department, and is also good for Executive Directors that want to get a comprehensive overview of the budgeting, accounting, and reporting requirements. The course covers Public Housing and related grants, as well as the Housing Choice Voucher program. Topics include budgets and funding calculations, monitoring, accounting requirements, reporting requirements and year end closing. Fully updated for all of the latest changes!

Detroit Housing Development Session and Tour - Bus Departs at 2:45 p.m.

Angela Diggs Jackson, J.D., Dev. Compliance Manager, Detroit Housing Commission

Housing development is now booming in Detroit, especially in the mid-town and downtown areas. But, at the beginning of the millennium, the Housing Commission (DHC) was the largest developer of new housing in Detroit. An overview of four of DHC’s mixed-finance HOPE VI projects, Emerald Springs, Woodbridge Estates, Cornerstone Estates and Gardenview Estates, will be discussed. Each community is varied in design, amenities and purpose. We will explore the problems and advantages that were unique to each development as well as what we needed to accomplish in order to structure the mixed-finance deals that won HUD approval. We will also cover the structure, credentials, and roles and responsibilities of each project’s development team.

PIC... Everything but Errors

Mary Hirsch-Justice, Housing Data Systems Inc

This session will help PHA users keep a finger on their reporting pulse in PIC by covering real-time and monthly updated reports that can affect a PHA's scoring for SEMAP and PHAS. We will also review portability, flat rent, unit status, and occupancy.

Putting the Choice Back in the Housing Choice Voucher Program

Jennifer Keogh, Assistant Manager, Metro HRA

In a market that is difficult to place vouchers, what strategies can you take to assist your families? As housers, we need to ensure that families not only lease up in decent, safe and sanitary units, but also in the areas that will ensure they have every opportunity to succeed as a non-voucher holder. The Metropolitan Council's HRA implemented a mobility counselling program in 2015 that provides a holistic approach to working with families. They will share their experiences with implementation, expansion of outreach to landlords and share some success stories and lessons learned.

Tax Credit 101 - part 3

Tom Caldwell, Cinnaire and Tom Edmiston, Cinnaire

Attendees will use the skills they have learned in the previous two sessions in two case studies. The first will be for a development financed using 9% housing tax credits. The second will be a case study using 4% tax credits. Staff will cover general operating guidelines and will learn basic underwriting guidelines. Participants will calculate the financial feasibility of a 9% housing tax credit development and a 4% housing tax credit development.

Commissioners Fundamentals

Jim Inglis, Executive Director, Livonia Housing Commission

Commissioner Fundamentals is a must if you're a new Commissioner or tenured. The session explores the roles and responsibilities of Commissioners, enhancing participants understanding of the Commissioner's multi-faceted position as advocate, leader, team building, strategist, ethical leader and policy maker. Participants examine how to increase your effectiveness as board members while exploring the intricacies of board-executive relationships and boundaries.

Testing Positive: Legal Implications of Drug Testing in the Public Sector

Andrew Esposito, Clemans Nelson

Do you drug test your applicants? Do you drug test your employees? Do you randomly drug test your employees? Do you know if you legally permitted to do so? This session will go over drug testing for public sector employees and what legally can or can't be done.

Smoke Free Housing

Jim Bergman, Center for Social Gerontology

Sharon Carlson, Belding Housing Commission

Smoke-free public housing is a reality with the final rule, effective February 3, 2017. PHAs must implement smoke-free policies within 18 months, and those agencies with already existing policies must insure those policies are in line with the final rule. Jim Bergman, Attorney and Co-Director at the Center for Social Gerontology in Ann Arbor, Michigan has been instrumental in leading dozens of Michigan agencies through the process of deliberation and smoke-free policy development over the past decade. Join Mr. Bergman and co-presenter Sharon Carlson for guidance on provisions within the rule, resident engagement in policy formation and implementation, and successful enforcement practices.
